UNCONSTITUTIONALITY IN ELECTION OF OFFICERS

As a Result Charleroi Has New Solicitor to Replace One in Office 4 Days

OTHER RESULTS THE SAME

Auditing May Be Done in March Instead of April

The city fathers met in adjourned session last night and transacted some very important business. Probably the most important action taken last night was that which brought the council to a legal form of carrying on its election. The general public at large has long known that the secret ballot in election of officers was not legal. While Geo. L. Schuyler was attorney for the borough several years ago, he drew up an ordinance making it part of the by-laws of the local council that officers may be elected by secret ballot. Attorney Schuyler advised the passage of this ordinance to carry out the object of the council at that time although it was contrary to the laws of the state and he must have known that it was not a legal procedure.

Because of such a general unfavorable comment by the citizens of our town after the election of officers by council at their last meeting at which time Mr. Schuyler received four votes, the council found it necessary to take up their election and conduct it in a legal form.

When the vote was taken it was found that with one exception all were elected as before. The exception was in the solicitorship. At the previous election on Monday George L. Schuyler had been elected by a vote of 4 to 3 over D. M. McCloskey. Last night Mr. McCloskey was selected by a vote of 4 to 3 over Mr. Schuyler. The votes follow: For McCloskey—Calvert, Frye, Lynn, Pierson. For Schuyler—Frew, Hein, Schmieler.

The portion of the constitution, which caused the vote to be taken over is Article 4, Section 12, where it says that election of officers of a borough or city must be by voice. The officers were elected by secret ballot on Monday. Those chosen last night are as follows: Chief of police, C. W. Albright; first patrolman, John Higgins; second patrolman, George McElowny; borough solicitor, D. M. McCloskey; clerk, Ira L. Nickerson; borough treasurer, R. H. Rush; street commissioner, Jacob Hornell; borough electrician, J. W. Cordes; borough engineer, B. S. Smallwood; teamsters, John Haines and Walter Lewis.

The matter of changing the date of the auditing of the borough books was taken up and Councilman Frye presented a resolution to the effect that it be changed. A resolution passed first reading. From present indications it will be put through at future meetings. The fiscal year at present ends March 31, whereas it should in accordance with other laws of the state end at the first of March. The auditing as it is at present is therefore made some time in April. As the resolution of Mr. Frye would make it, the fiscal year would end March 1st, and the auditing would be done the second Tuesday of the month. Mr. Frye who last year was chairman of the street committee read a report in full of the work done by that committee during the past year. More work had been done than in the previous one, and that at a less expense.

R. L. Barnhart was present asking for the license on his theatre to be reduced. He was informed that the ordinance governing this matter had been passed, and could not be well changed. Mr. Barnhart's license is $100 a year.

Milton Shippe was present asking for a sewer for Shady avenue to connect with Fourth street. The matter was referred to the proper committee.

The matter of improvement of the sewer on Prospect avenue and Lincoln avenue between Third and second streets was taken up and discussed, and then placed into the street committee's hands.

Another meeting has been called for Tuesday of next week when other matters which have been left over, including the Holland bill for the taxing of aliens in the state, will be taken up.

Tom P. Sloan was present from North Charleroi and asked that a committee be appointed to act in conjunction with a similar committee from North Charleroi to make an effort to have McKean avenue opened through North Charleroi. On motion the present street committee was instructed to act.

ARRANGING FOR ANNUAL FIELD MEET OF SCHOOLS

Meeting in Charleroi at Which Three Schools Were Represented

At a meeting of the representatives held in Charleroi it was decided to hold the annual meet between the high schools of the valley at Cook's race track near Belle Vernon Saturday May 15. Monongahela was not represented and the committee was composed of Prof. Daly of Donora; Prof. Smith, of Charleroi, and Prof. J. W. Cummins, of Monessen.

Several events were eliminated from the program of last year and a half mile run, test standing broad jump and 120 yards hurdle were added. It was decided to ask Elizabeth High school to participate and then adjournment was taken until Thursday, March 25.

The list of events follows: 50 yd., 100 yd and 220 yd. dashes 120 yd. low hurdles, half mile run, half mile relay, 14 boys each run 1-2 mile, running broad and running high jumps, standing broad jump, pole vault and shot put, making eleven events in all. The participants may enter any number of events. Last year five events was the limit.

School Children Will Give Elaborate Affair April 22nd and 23rd

Prof. W. D. Wright is arranging for a cantata to be given at the school hall on April 22 and 23rd by children of the school. The cantata will be "The Lilliputians" and will be in costume. There will be about 100 to 200 children in the affair, and it is expected that it will be one of the most elaborate affairs ever given in this place. The cantata is copyrighted, and the company which puts it out will send a trainer here to assist Prof. Wright.

BLOW WILL BE FAR REACHING FROM MONONGAHELA FIRE

MISSING MAN SUDDENLY TURNS UP AT HOME

Took Trip to West and Came Here From Chicago Junction

Arriving home suddenly yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock, and apparently not knowing that his friends and the police over the country had been looking for him for weeks, Edward Harris, of Charleroi calmly walked into a barber shop on McKean avenue and Sixth street and asked for a shave. The barber who was a particular friend of the man neatly dropped.

It appears that Harris who disappeared from his home many days ago, and of whom there has not been a trace found since, had been in Ohio, and the states west of Pennsylvania. He came from Chicago Junction here. Being a popular man, he is being received with open arms by his friends.

CHARLEROI MAN THROWN FROM FAST MOVING TRAIN

Says Three Men Robbed Him and Pushed Him From the Car

Pittsburg, March 20.—John Lewis of Charleroi was pushed off a fast moving freight train upon which he was riding last night at McKeesport, by burglars, who had robbed him of $37, his savings. The man was picked up unconscious and removed to the McKeesport hospital where he regained consciousness and told who he was. His injuries were slight. Lewis says that three men robbed him, and tried to push him under the wheels.

The Secret of Success.
The motto of success was given in this tale, told at a banquet: A Swede among the miners in the west was noted for always striking pay dirt. His fellows thought that there must be some secret to the unusual success of the Swede and questioned him as to how he always succeeded in finding the spot where the gold cropped out.

"Well, Ay don't know of Ay can tell anyone 'bout dat," answered Ole "Ay only know dat Ay must keep on diggin'."—Milwaukee Free Press.

Even Poetry.
"Why do you think Mr. Pennington, that your new book of poems will have a large sale?" "My publishers have had the wisdom to put a picture of a beautiful girl on the cover. It is my belief that even poetry can be sold if one goes about it in a businesslike way."—Minneapolis Journal.

A Man's Birthday.
We do not know whence a man comes nor whether he goes, yet we choose his birthday to celebrate his coming century. We should choose his day of achievement.—London Saturday Review.

Latest Statement to Effect That Damage was $100,000 With No Insurance

CONTRACTS DISTRIBUTED

Big Batch of Orders to be Filled and Must be Re-Let

With the loss at the Capell Fan and Engineering company at Monongahela at about $100,000, as a result of the fire at that place Friday morning, it has been announced that there was no insurance carried on the building. If this is the case it will indeed go hard with the owners of the plant.

The blow will be far reaching. Practically all the men employed in that part of the plant were experts, and had only the finest of tools which were destroyed with those of the company.

Files of orders were booked ahead, and the evening before the fire a large batch had been received. The Capell company were specialists in the best material for mines, and their work is among the best known. The company announces that these orders will all be filled and that in order to live up to their contracts the work will be distributed over the city to as great an extent as possible.

This will be especially true in regard to the castings. Machine work will be let out to the Webb Herron company, of Black Diamond. The rest of the plant will resume operations and that portion aside from the machine work will be done by the Capell company.

It is probable that the machine plant will be rebuilt but no definite announcement has been made by the company regarding future plans.

How About a Good Back View?
"Auntie Liz had a hard time having her picture taken today," said her nephew, who had just opened a photographic studio and had very courteously asked his aunt to come and pose for a new picture.

"Why, what was the trouble?" asked his brother. "Well, you see, when I told her to look pleasant she didn't look natural, and when I told her to look natural she didn't look pleasant."—Ladies' Home Journal.

Good Plan.

The plan of the school authorities
to keep the interest of the children in their school work by contests, and charities is a good one, and has a twofold result. One is that of the above-mentioned interest, which they will take in their studies, and teacher, and
the other is that of the valuable experience which they get in appearing before audiences. It will go far toward wearing off the natural
nervousness that comes upon a person
at their first appearance before a
gathering, and stand them in good
stead in the future.

Not to be Advised.

It is natural for the parents of the Sharon lad that was kidnapped to be willing to pay the ransom for the return of their child. Such is not the best policy however. The detectives
and police officials in this up-to-date
country are paid for the work of tracking down criminals, and if they cannot
in several days work find a boy that
has been stolen from his parents, then
it will be time to talk of giving the reward. It is not likely however that the parents will have the amount asked by the daring kidnapers, to give, and while they are anxious for the return of the little fellow, a
little waiting on the police would do
good. The country is too much
crowded to allow a criminal or criminal to escape with a reward photograph has been sent broadcast. It is well nigh useless for the thieves to try to get away.

THE DOCTOR'S QUESTION

Advice Against the Use of Harsh Purgatives and Physics

A doctor's first question when consulted by a patient is, "are your bowels regular?" He knows that ninety-eight per cent of illness is attended with inactive bowels and torpid liver. This condition poisons the system with noxious gases and waste matter which naturally accumulate and which must be removed through the bowels before health can be restored.

Salts, ordinary pills and cathartics
may be truly likened to dynamite.
Through their harsh, irritating action they force a passage through the bowels, causing pain and damage to the delicate intestinal structure which weakens the whole system, and at best only produces temporary relief. The repeated use of such treatments cause chronic irritation of the stomach and bowels, hardens the tissues, deadens
the nerves stiffens their muscles and generally brings about an injurious habit which sometimes has fatal results.

We have a positive, pleasant and safe remedy for constipation and bowel disorders in general. We are so certain of its great curative value that we promise to return the purchaser's money in every case when it fails to produce entire satisfaction. This remedy is called Rexall Orderlies.

Rexall Orderlies are very pleasant to take, they act quietly and have a soothing, strengthening, healing influence on the entire intestinal tract.
They do not purge, gripe, cause nausea, flatulence, excessive looseness, diarrhoea or other annoying effect, and they may be taken at any time without any inconvenience.

Rexall Orderlies overcome the debilitating habit and cure constipation and all similar ailments, whether acute or chronic. They are especially good for children, weak persons or old folks. Price, 50 tablets, 50c.,

"And how long has she been away?"

"Exactly thirty days."

"And how on earth are you able to tell that?"

"My dear fellow, by the unwashed dishes and cups and saucers. There are ninety of each in all, which shows that he has used three a day for thirty days and left them for her to wash
when she comes home—same as we all do. Simplest thing in the world, my dear fellow; simplest thing in the world!"

PINGS' LOVE AFFAIR.

While It Lasted He Was a Very Busy Man.

Pings, the bookkeeper, was in love. In fact, the new stenographer had him so dazzled that he was getting seven shaves a week, waxing the ends of his mustache and memorizing whole pages of love sonnets.

One day his hair fairly curled with pleasure as she handed him her hair eraser to sharpen, and when she returned it he beamed on her and said: "Miss Peachy, if there is one thing I can do well it is to sharpen a knife, and whenever you have any of this work to be done please let me attend to it for you. Really, I will consider it a favor."

The next morning she brought down to the office a couple of penknives for him to try his skill on and two days later three pairs of shears, and after these had been attended to she handed him a package and said:

"Here are some razors. Mr. Pings, Father and the boys have such a thirst to keep them sharp, and I know how you love to do the work. I'll bring them to you every month."

Pings' jaw dropped when he opened the package and found twelve dull razors, and when he crawled into bed at midnight after working on the blades all evening he vowed it would be the last job of the kind he would ever do.

But it wasn't.

The very next day the handsome stenographer handed him another parcel, and this time it was several carving knives that needed attention, and it took just one smile to make him forget his vow. This might have ended the matter for a time had not the office force caught on to what the bookkeeper was doing, and then the boys decided to have some fun at his expense. Pings came down to the office one morning to find on his desk a box, an ax, a shovel, several ancient swords and a pickax, and plumed to the latter was a piece of paper on which was written:

"Please sharpen these at once, Mr. Pings. Will bring down the lawn mower tomorrow."

But Pings was through. When he had recovered from his astonishment he wasn't three minutes in looking for another position.—A. B. Lewis in Judge.

Touched.

Weeping bitterly, the poor man told her he had a wife and six children to support.

"All right, my poor man," she said sympathetically. "I will help you. After you have cleaned all the snow out of the path from here to the barn, milked four cows, curried two horses, watered the pigs, fed the chickens and cut enough stove wood to last two or three days I'll give you a nickel and bid you luck on your way."

And still the poor man wept.

"Ah, you weep for your family?" asked the farmer's wife.

"No, mum," he said, brushing away a tear. "I weep because it touches me to know that der are such generous people in de world, mum."—Chicago News

UNCONSTITUTIONALITY IN ELECTION OF OFFICERS

As a Result Charleroi Has New Solicitor to Replace One in Office 4 Days

OTHER RESULTS THE SAME

Auditing May Be Done in March Instead of April

The city fathers met in adjourned session last night and transacted some very important business. Probably the most important action taken last night was that which brought the council to a legal form of carrying on its election. The general public at large has long known that the secret ballot in election of officers was not legal. While Geo. L. Schuyler was attorney for the borough several years ago, he drew up an ordinance making it part of the by-laws of the local council that officers may be elected by secret ballot. Attorney Schuyler advised the passage of this ordinance to carry out the object of the council at that time although it was contrary to the laws of the state and he must have known that it was not a legal procedure.

Because of such a general unfavorable comment by the citizens of our town after the election of officers by council at their last meeting at which time Mr. Schuyler received four votes, the council found it necessary to take up their election and conduct it in a legal form.

When the vote was taken it was found that with one exception all were elected as before. The exception was in the solicitorship. At the previous election on Monday George L. Schuyler had been elected by a vote of 4 to 3 over D. M. McCloskey. Last night Mr. McCloskey was selected by a vote of 4 to 3 over Mr. Schuyler. The votes follow: For McCloskey—Calvert, Frye, Lynn, Pierpol. For Schuyler—Frew, Hein, Schmieler.

The portion of the constitution, which caused the vote to be taken over is Article 3, Section 12, where it says that election of officers of a borough or city must be by voice. The officers were elected by secret ballot on Monday. These chosen last night

are as follows: Chief of police, C. W. Albright; first patrolman, John Higgins; second patrolman, George McElowny; borough solicitor, D. M. McCloskey; clerk, Ira T. Nickeson; borough treasurer, R. H. Rush; street commissioner, Jacob Hormell; borough electrician, J. W. Cordes; borough engineer, B. S. Smallwood; taxmasters, John Haines and Walter Lewis.

The matter of changing the date of the auditing of the borough books was taken up and Councilman Frye presented a resolution to the effect that it be changed. A resolution passed first reading. From present indications it will be put through at future meetings. The fiscal year at present ends March 31, whereas it should in accordance with other laws of the state end at the first of March. The auditing as it is at present is therefore made some time in April. As the resolution of Mr. Frye would make it, the fiscal year would end March 1st, and the auditing would be done the second Tuesday of the month. Mr. Frye who last year was chairman of the street committee read a report in full of the work done by that committee during the past year. More work had been done than in the previous one, and that at a less expense.

R. L. Barnhart was present asking for the license on his theatre to be reduced. He was informed that the ordinance governing this matter had been passed, and could not be well changed. Mr. Barnhart's license is $100 a year.

Milton Shippe was present asking for a sewer for Shady avenue to connect with Fourth street. The matter was referred to the proper committee.

The matter of improvement of the sewer on Prospect avenue and Lincoln avenue between Third and second street was taken up and discussed, and then placed into the street committee's hands.

Another meeting has been called for Tuesday of next week when other matters which have been left over, including the Holland bill for the taxing of aliens in the state, will be taken up.

Tom P. Sloan was present from North Charleroi and asked that a committee be appointed to act in conjunction with a similar committee from North Charleroi to make an effort to have McKean avenue opened through North Charleroi. On motion the present street committee was instructed to act.

ARRANGING FOR ANNUAL FIELD MEET OF SCHOOLS

BLOW WILL BE FAR REACHING FROM MONONGAHELA FIRE

MISSING MAN SUDDENLY TURNS UP AT HOME

Here From Chicago Junction

Arriving home suddenly yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock, and apparently not knowing that his friends and the police over the country had been looking for him for weeks, Edward Harris, of Charleroi calmly walked into a barber shop on McKean avenue and Sixth street and asked for a shave. The barber who was a particular friend of the man nearly dropped.

It appears that Harris who disappeared from his home many days ago, and of whom there has not been a trace found since, had been in Ohio, and the states west of Pennsylvania. He came from Chicago Junction here. Being a popular man, he is being received with open arms by his friends.

CHARLEROI MAN THROWN FROM FAST MOVING TRAIN

Says Three Men Robbed Him and Pushed Him From the Car

Pittsburg, March 20.—John Lewis of Charleroi was pushed off a fast moving freight train upon which he was riding last night at McKeesport, by burglars, who had robbed him of $37, his savings. The man was picked up unconscious and removed to the McKeesport hospital where he regained consciousness and told who he was. His injuries were slight. Lewis says that three men robbed him, and tried to push him under the wheels.

The Secret of Success.
The motto of success was given in this tale, told at a banquet:
A Swede among the miners in the west was noted for always striking pay dirt. His fellows thought that there must be some secret to the unusual success of the Swede and questioned him as to how he always succeeded in finding the spot where the gold cropped out.
"Well, Ay don't know of Ay can tell an'tangt 'bout dat," answered Ole. "Ay only know dat Ay just keep on diggin'."—Milwaukee Free Press.

Even Poetry.
"Why do you think, Mr. Pennington, that your new book of poems will have a large sale?"
"My publishers have had the wisdom to put a picture of a beautiful girl on the cover. It is my belief that even poetry can be sold if one goes about it in a businesslike way."—Minneapolis Journal.

Latest Statement to Effect That Damage was $100,000 With No Insurance

CONTRACTS DISTRIBUTED

Big Batch of Orders to Be Filled and Must be Re-Let

With the loss at the Capell Fan and Engineering company at Monongahela at about $100,000, as a result of the fire at that place Friday morning, it has been announced that there was no insurance carried on the building. If this is the case it will indeed go hard with the owners of the plant.

The blow will be far reaching. Practically all the men employed in that part of the plant were experts, and had only the finest of tools which were destroyed with those of the company.

Piles of orders were booked ahead, and the evening before the fire a large batch had been received. The Capell company were specialists in the best material for mines, and their work is among the best known. The company announces that these orders will all be filled and that in order to live up to their contracts the work will be distributed over the city to as great an extent as possible.

This will be especially true in regard to the castings.

Machine work will be let out to the Webb Herron company, of Black Diamond. The rest of the plant will resume operations and that portion aside from the machine work will be done by the Capell company.

It is probable that the machine plant will be rebuilt but no definite announcement has been made by the company regarding future plans.

How About a Good Back View?
"Auntie Liz had a hard time having her picture taken today," said her nephew, who had just opened a photographic studio and had very courteously asked his aunt to come and pose for a new picture.

"Why, what was the trouble?" asked his brother.
"Well, you see, when I told her to look pleasant she didn't look natural, and when I told her to look natural she didn't look pleasant."—Ladies' Home Journal.

The plan of the school authorities
to keep the interest of the children in
their school work by contests, and carriers is a good one, and has a twofold result. One is that of the above-mentioned interest, which they will
take in their studies, and teacher, and
the other is that of the valuable experience which they get in appearing
before audiences. It will go far
toward wearing off the natural
nervousness that comes upon a person
at their first appearance before a
gathering, and stand them in good
stead in the future.

Not to be Advised.

It is natural for the parents of the Sharon lad that was kidnapped to be willing to pay the ransom for the return of their child. Such is not the best policy however. The detectives
and police officials in this up-to-date
country are paid for the work of tracking down criminals, and if they cannot
in several days work find a boy that
has been stolen from his parents, then
it will be time to talk of giving the
reward. It is not likely however
asked by the daring kidnappers. To give, and while they are anxious for
the return of the little fellow, a
little waiting on the police would do
good. The country is too much
crowded to allow a criminal or criminals to escape with a key whose photograph has been sent broadcast. It is well nigh useless for the thieves to
try to get away.

Black Sparks.

Removing the tax from coffee congress should not overlook the little lump that sweetens it. That ought to be free, too.

A bill making it a crime to swear
over the telephone passed the Texas legislature. But why is profanity over the telephone any worse than profanity anywhere else?

Since the beginning of the new administration our hens are laying twice to $1.50 at the same place. But Mr.

A Jewel Car

is just what the name implies. It is the refined combination of the most practical ideas of Foreign and American manufacturers. Our 1909 models edged simplicity of construction, quietness of operation and

The simplicity of construction and accessibility of all parts

the professional assistance of an expert mechanic or chauffeur.
For one who wants a car of absolutely dependable reliability,

"gets there and gets back" without trouble, we recommend the Jewel. A list of enthusiastic owners will be furnished to any

PINGS' LOVE AFFAIR.

While it lasted he was a very busy man.

Pings, the bookkeeper, was in love. In fact, the new stenographer had him so dazzled that he was getting seven shaves a week, waxing the ends of his mustache and memorizing whole pages of love sonnets.

One day his hair fairly curled with pleasure as she handed him her ink eraser to sharpen, and when he returned it he beamed on her and said:

"Miss Peachy, if there is one thing I can do well it is to sharpen a knife, and whenever you have any of this work to be done please let me attend to it for you. Really, I will consider it a favor."

The next morning she brought down to the office a couple of penknives for him to try his skill on and two days later three pairs of shears, and after those had been attended to she handed him a package and said:

"Here are some razors, Mr. Pings. Father and the boys have such a time to keep them sharp, and I know how you love to do the work. I'll bring them to you every month."

Pings took up the package and found twelve dull razors, and when he crawled into bed at midnight after working on the blades all evening he vowed it would be the last job of the kind he would ever do.

But it wasn't.

The very next day the handsome stenographer had to sharpen the penknives and this time it was several cutting knives that needed attention, and it took just one smile to make him forget his vow. This might have ended the matter for a time had not the office force caught on to what the bookkeeper was doing, and then the boys decided to have some fun at his expense. Pings came down to the office one morning to find on his desk a box, an ax, a shovel, several ancient swords and a pickax, and pinned to the latter was a piece of paper on which was written:

"Please sharpen these at once, Mr. Pings. Will bring down the law in seven minutes."

But Pings was through. When he had recovered from his astonishment he wasn't three minutes in looking for another position. A. B. Lewis is Judge.

Touched.

Weeping bitterly, the poor man told her he had a wife and six children to support.

"All right, my poor man," she said sympathetically, "I will help you. After you have cleaned all the snow out of the path from here to the barn, milked four cows, carried two horses, watered the hogs, fed the chickens and cut enough stove wood to last two or three days I'll give you a nickel and bid you luck on your way."

And still the poor man wept.

"Ah, you weep for your family?" asked the farmer's wife.

"No, mum," he said, brushing away a tear. "I weep because it touches me to know that der are such generous people in de world, mum."—Chicago News.

Frills That Soften.

There is no disguising the fact that without the immense and lovely jabots, stocks and frilled puffs the present styles would be angular and severe to an unbecoming degree. The softening frill does much to hide the severity of the season's costumes.

It is the opinion of many that women are more forlorned this year, than ever before, but if all these frills were deducted women would look as manly as they did on the street last year.
